Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Origin of the Rosary
Using beads for prayer and meditation is an ancient custom, found in many cultures and religions. The Christian rosary dates from the 12th century, when it provided a way for ordinary Christians to learn about the lives of Jesus and Mary. Alan de la Roche, a 15th century Dominican, preferred “Psalter of Our Lady” to “rosary.” This fitting name recalls an explanation of the devotion’s origin. Unable to read the 150 psalms that formed the Church’s “official” daily prayer, medieval Christians substituted first 150 Pater Nosters, and later 150 Ave Marias. By meditating on the various mysteries of the rosary while repeating these simple prayers, the faithful could immerse themselves in the whole mystery of the Incarnation and the Resurrection.

This week’s celebration of Our Lady of the Rosary (October 7) is an appropriate reminder of this venerable form of prayer. Faithful Christians everywhere continue to meditate on the mysteries of the rosary, praying in groups or alone. Why not take advantage of this week’s celebration to renew your acquaintance with the rosary?

When It Comes To Catholics Evangelizing...we don’t have to look much further than ourselves, said Jan Heath, who has been a leader in a program to bring Catholics back to the practice of the faith in Australia. She was once a returning Catholic herself and understands the concerns of those who are returning. “I returned to the Catholic Church because three people took time to share their faith with me, to listen to my story, and encourage me to come back,” she said. Do you know of anyone who needs to return to the practice of our Catholic Faith? Would you be able to share your faith with a fallen away Catholic student at Bucknell? Someone is waiting for you.
