Nicene Creed
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Join CCM for its last community service event of the semester on Fri, Dec. 5th, with a holiday trip to Geisinger Children’s Hospital!
We will be doing holiday crafts with the children in the hospital to help brighten their day. We will depart from Newman House at 3 PM and return by 5 PM. Due to hospital policy, only a maximum of 10 volunteers are permitted to attend so please contact mlancell@bucknell.edu as soon as possible if interested.

CMM for the Holidays
There is a lot planned for CCM this December. Don’t forget to mark your calendars for a night of Christmas Decorating and Dinner at Newman House on Thu, Dec. 4th starting at 6 PM. Priests will be available during this time (from 6 PM to Midnight) for Advent Confessions. Join CCM in welcoming in the holiday season!

A NOTE FROM FATHER MARTY: WHAT MAKES A SAINT?
As of June 2001, Pope John Paul II has canonized 451 during his tenure—more than any other pope in history. Many of these newer saints, 411 of which are martyrs, come from nations outside the West of western Europe to reflect more fully the global reach and impact of the Church. (Dates of saints’ particular feast days may vary by country.)

Canonization: Canonization is both a journey and a destination, and it certainly isn't quick. Here’s the process, according to Pope John Paul II (last updated 1983):

1. The candidate must have been dead at least five years so that the investigation benefits from the emotional distance time can afford.
2. The bishop of the diocese where the candidate died is responsible for beginning the investigation. He convenes a tribunal to examine the facts of the candidate’s life in detail. Witnesses both for and against formal sainthood are called to testify as character witnesses, in essence. The main criterion is whether this person has proven “heroic exercise of virtue.” At the end of this stage, the candidate gains the title “Servant of God.”
3. The diocese sends its findings to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints in Rome. A postulator functions like a defense attorney, summarizing the candidate’s case and presenting it to a board of nine theologians for examination. If the majority of them vote in favor, the case passes next to the cardinals and bishops of the congregation. If the congregation judge favorably, their prefect (the head of the group) passes the case to the Pope. If the Pope approves, he authorizes the congregation to prepare a public declaration of the candidate’s “heroic virtues.”
4. Beatification is a first-level bonus. It means that, with parallel investigations and approvals, the candidate is shown to have performed a miracle. The candidate gets the title “Blessed.”
5. Canonization is a double bonus. If the candidate can be shown to have interceded and performed a miracle after beatification, s/he gets bumped up to “Saint.”
