Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Young adult Catholics learn how not to marry a 'jerk' or 'jerkette'

University Heights, Ohio (CNS) -- Young adults in their 20s and 30s are often searching for their life mates, and Catholics are no different. That's why John Van Epp's workshop on "How to Avoid Marrying a Jerk(ette)" was a popular part of the Oct. 15-17 National Young Adult Conference, sponsored by the Cleveland diocesan Youth & Young Adult Ministry and CYO offices, the Catholic dioceses of Ohio, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops and the National Catholic Young Adult Ministry Association. Thirteen men and 44 women got a crash course in Van Epp's five-part relationship attachment model, which he teaches to members of the U.S. armed services and other groups. He has a video, DVD and website (www.nojerks.com) and even offers certification in the model. "Choosing a marriage partner requires your heart to work in harmony with your head," Van Epp said. "The program is more than marrying a certain type of person, but rather getting to know what a person is like."
