Nicene Creed
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father.

Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Catholic Church celebrates 40th Anniversary of the Decree on Ecumenism
ROCCA DI PAPA, Italy (CNS) -- Perseverance, courage, patience and hope are necessary as Christians continue to work and pray for unity, said Cardinal Walter Kasper, president of the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity. The council gathered Catholic bishops from around the world, representatives from 27 other Christian communities and ecumenical experts Nov. 11-13 to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Second Vatican Council’s Decree on Ecumenism. The meeting opened on a cold, rainy day at a retreat center in Rocca di Papa, outside Rome, but the atmosphere inside was warm as the 260 bishops, priests and theologians who have worked together for Christian unity celebrated past success and looked toward the future. "We no longer have the ecumenical enthusiasm of the period immediately following the council, but we cannot say -- as some do -- that ecumenism is going through an ice age or an ecumenical winter," Cardinal Kasper told reporters Nov. 10. Instead, he said, the ecumenical dialogue is in "a stage of maturation or of necessary clarification."
