Nicene Creed
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Welcome Class of 2008
CCM, Catholic Campus Ministry, would like to welcome all accepted and visiting students. We hope you enjoy your visit at Bucknell. Please feel free to stop by the Newman House at 610 St. George Street to meet Father Marty and visit the Newman House. For more information on CCM and to learn how to become involved, please email ccm@bucknell.edu or visit our website at www.orgs.bucknell.edu/ccm.

Welcome Parents’ Board
CCM would also like to welcome the Bucknell Parents’ Board this week and next weekend. We appreciate your contribution to the university. We hope you enjoy your stay on our campus.

HISPANIC MASS
A Hispanic Catholic Mass will be held on Sunday, May 2, at 3:30 PM at the Cathedral Parish of St. Patrick in Harrisburg. The celebrant will be Fr. Luis Rodriguez, pastor of St. Benedict Parish in Lebanon with Fr. Bernardo Pistone, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Parish in Gettysburg as the homilist. All are invited to participate in this special celebration of faith and culture.

A Special Thank You to all those who helped out at Holy Week and Easter masses. It was a great success.

Respect Life Corner

Lapeer, MI (LifeNews.com) – April 12th marks the fifth anniversary of the sentencing of assisted suicide advocate Jack Kevorkian to 10-25 years in prison for euthanising a disabled man. In an interview, Kevorkian said he expects that he will die behind bars. On April 12, 1999, Jack Kevorkian was sentenced to the videotaped lethal injection of Thomas Youk in 1998. Youk had been diagnosed with Lou Gehrig's disease. In a telephone interview with the Daily Oakland Press that was published Sunday, the retired pathologist, 75, says he expects the last days of his life will be lived in prison. However, he does not believe his life or his cause is a failure. "There's no doubt I expect to die in prison," said Kevorkian. "All the big powers, they've silenced me. ... So much for free speech and choice on this fundamental human right."Kevorkian's attorney, Geoffrey Fieger: “[T]he Fieger Law Firm is known for taking cases with a cause," such as "defending Jack Kevorkian and individuals' rights to end their suffering," states Fieger's website. It is for this reason that pro-life advocates were shocked by news that Fieger's firm may be representing the family of Tamia Russell, 15, who died after having an abortion at a facility outside of Detroit. Kevorkian admitted to assisting in at least 130 other deaths. In 1998 Michigan passed a law making assisted suicide illegal and allowing for charges in Youk's death. In his interview, he said he will stand by an earlier promise not to assist in any more suicides if released from prison. But despite his promise and health condition, pro-life advocates are firm in their belief that Kevorkian's punishment should be served to its end. "Killing patients is never a valid prescription for solving pain and suffering," Pam Sherstad of Right to Life of Michigan said. “The denial of Jack Kevorkian's early release notes the seriousness of his offense. Jack Kevorkian chose to take not only the law into his own hands, but also the lives of others."

In Easter message, pope calls for peace in Iraq, Holy Land, Africa

VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- Offering his Easter blessing and prayers, Pope John Paul II called on world leaders to resolve ongoing conflicts in Iraq, the Holy Land and parts of Africa. In his April 11 message, broadcast to millions of people around the world, the pope also urged national and international institutions to work toward "a more effective and peaceful world order." He said, "May world leaders be confirmed and sustained in their efforts to resolve satisfactorily the continuing conflicts that cause bloodshed in certain regions of Africa, Iraq and the Holy Land." The pope said religion should be the foundation for peace, not war. He called on "all those who consider themselves children of Abraham" -- Christians, Jews and Muslims -- to "rediscover the brotherhood they share," and he asked that God prompt "in them designs of cooperation and peace."
