Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

- A NOTE FROM FATHER MARTY
  - I hope your semester is off to a great start! I was so happy to see the great turn out for masses last weekend! Keep up that wonderful and grace filled habit. As we start a new week remember: it is not always what we do, but the way we do it that concerns God. You can do ordinary things in extraordinary ways. God loves a cheerful doer. Ask yourself the question: “What has God chosen for me to do with my life?” If your work does not involve your soul, you are sure to suffer the pain of frustration and disappointment. Everyone has a calling. Give some thought to what God is calling you to do as you start this new week!

- Abortion in the first three months kills a human being whose heartbeat began during the first month of existence, whose brain began functioning in the second month and who, at the end of the second month [8 weeks!] responds to touch, sucks his or her thumb, grasps an instrument placed in their palm and swims with a natural swimmer's stroke. How can anyone deny that this is a human life—a child? Unbelievable.

- WHEN SOME PEOPLE DISAGREE WITH THE 'CHURCH'
  [they believe] it is the Church which should change--not the individual. But the Church is given to change us, to be the place where Christ will change us. If this is lost, then the Church has no reason for being--except as a place to celebrate significant moments with poetic texts and to gather people for social projects...One should never speak of the Church without speaking of Christ."
  - Francis Cardinal George, Archbishop of Chicago

- TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
  Monday’s feast of the Presentation is a day for blessing of candles. Why does liturgy require candles? In the first years of the Church, worship was often at night, and candles and torches were carried from place to place within the worship space as needed. Candles were also a mark of festivity and hospitality when people gathered for prayer in homes, and later on in large buildings with thick walls and dark corners. But even after gaslight and electricity, candles were kept.

  Part of the reason has to do with the warm, clean light of a candle’s flame. Candles are a good sign of the partnership of God and creation: wax made by bees, gathered and fashioned by human hands into something beautiful and useful. In order for the light to shine, the candle surrenders itself, almost as if it is pouring itself out so that the light can flood into the world. The candle of baptism, placed into our hands, and carried again and again, speaks silently of that same wisdom. If you would save your life, you must lose it. You must pour your life out like Christ so that you may be filled with the light of his love.
