Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CCM Calendar

February:

8- Pulpit Exchange—Father Marty will speak at the 11 am Protestant service in Rooke Chapel as part of the international observance of Christian Unity Week.

RCIA—6pm at Newman House.

10-13 Busy Person’s Retreat—CCM welcomes the nine Catholic priests and sisters from dioceses all over Pennsylvania. This is an excellent opportunity to work one-on-one with a spiritual director who will meet according to your schedule.

15- Pulpit Exchange—University Chaplain Ian Oliver will speak at the weekend Masses in observance of Christian Unity Week.

20-21 30-Hour Famine—This national event through World Vision encourages Christian students to fast for 30 hours and focus on issues of hunger and poverty. For more information, contact Laura Wray <lwrwray@bucknell.edu>.

25- Ash Wednesday Services—The preparation for Holy Week begins. The annual Lenten Meditation booklet with daily devotions by Bucknell students and staff will be distributed at the services. Ecumenical (Catholic and Protestant) services are at 12 noon and 5 p.m. in Rooke Chapel and a Catholic Mass will be celebrated at 10 p.m. in Hunt Hall Formal.

CCM Announcements

A NOTE FROM FATHER MARTY
We welcome the vocation directors who are on the Bucknell University campus this week for our CCM Busy Person Retreat. May we take time from our busy lives to thank the Lord for the profound gift of His Love and our deep faith. It is a fact of campus life and life everywhere that many people today experience a deep sense of uncertainty and confusion. It seems that for some the world is filled with questions and even discouragement. While we have to admit that the future, as always, is uncertain, we also have to recognize that it is full of possibilities. And as Catholics, we have the added certainty and hope that comes from our faith in the victory of Jesus' death and resurrection. You can be witnesses of that hope for everyone you meet, sharing with them the hope that is based on the Gospel and the abiding presence of the Spirit. By your care and concern, you can also reassure other people that they are really loved and that Christ's love is always present for them.

All Day Confessions
Fr. Fred & Fr. Hanley, both visiting priests here for the Busy Person's Retreat, will be hearing confessions all day Wednesday the 11th and Thursday the 12th.

CCM Insights
Students interested in receiving “CCM Insights,” a spiritual column by Fr. Marty which is e-mailed on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, just e-mail newmanhouse@bucknell.edu

Thank You to all those to assisted in the preparation of the Superbowl Party; Kristie Smith, Rudy Bohince, Mike Haile, Liz Lorson, Amanda Forsburg, and Eduardo Maeyama.

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE
Today is an opportunity to recognize and give thanks for those who have consecrated their lives to God, to learn more about the consecrated life, and to pray for future vocations to this kind of life. For many this consecrated life is not familiar and perhaps even a bit mysterious. It is a viable choice for living out the baptismal commitment. World Day for Consecrated Life is the perfect occasion to promote this kind of religious vocation. Consecrated life has a variety of forms. Religious, Sisters, Nuns, Brothers, Priests, and Monks all consecrate their love to God and the work of Christ in the Church. Single lay people may choose to be a part of a secular institute or may profess the evangelical vows, [poverty, chastity and obedience.] privately to the local bishops. The entire Church is blessed through those who consecrate their lives in these various vocations.

Bucknell CCM Busy Persons’s Retreat
