Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CHURCH GUIDELINES FOR LENT

To sum up the requirements, Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. In addition, all Catholics 14 years old and older must abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent. Fasting as explained by the U.S. Catholic bishops means partaking of only one full meal. Some food (not equaling another full meal) is permitted at breakfast and around midday or in the evening—depending on when a person chooses to eat the main or full meal. Abstinence forbids the use of meat, but not of eggs, milk products or condiments made of animal fat.

A Note from Fr. Marty

Pope says being Christian entails participating in life of church
VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- Being Christian is more than a social stance: It entails participating in the life of the church, Pope John Paul II said in a message to French bishops at the end of an "ad limina" visit to the Vatican. In his address Feb. 20 to bishops from the province of Paris and from the military ordinariate, the pope said, "The Christian way cannot be based upon a sociological viewpoint or upon basic knowledge of the Christian message if these things don't also bring about participation in the life of the church. "It would be a sign of faith that is completely external to the person," he told the bishops, who were making visits required of all heads of dioceses every five years. The pope underlined the importance of priests, catechists and parents setting an example of living the faith. He said children and young people are especially sensitive to any discrepancies between people's words and their actual behavior.

LORD, during these days of Lent, give us the courage to abandon what is familiar and comfortable so that we can take risks that will promote growth and change. Help us to remember your words and example so that we will be inspired to live the demands of the Gospel. Give us the strength to walk the Christian path, and to see all things through the eyes of your endless love. Amen.
