Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CONSTITUTION DAY
In late May, a federal law was enacted that requires all colleges and universities receiving federal funding to observe Constitution Day on or about September 17, the day the Constitution was signed. Bucknell will observe Constitution Day on September 15, 2005. Campbell Brown, former White House Correspondent for NBC, will speak at 7:30 p.m on September 15 in Rooke Chapel. Ms. Brown is currently the host of Weekend Today. She also spent over a month reporting on the post election day Florida recount. Upon joining NBC, Brown was first assigned to cover President Clinton’s impeachment trial. Constitution Day is an opportunity for the entire Bucknell community to come together to commemorate the signing of the Constitution and hear the perspectives of one who has covered one of the most influential and controversial Constitutional issues of our time. Everyone is invited to attend. Questions? Contact kowens@bucknell.edu.
