Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Confirmation Class begins this month!
If you have received the sacraments of Baptism & Eucharist and are interested in receiving Confirmation, CCM will be holding a Confirmation Catch-Up class allowing active participants to be confirmed this Spring. Contact Father Marty at ccm@bucknell.edu if you are interested. The class will be held on Sunday, September 25th from 6:00 - 7:00 pm at Newman House.

A Note from Fr. Marty

In this weekend's Gospel parable, Jesus emphasizes generosity over the human convention of equal pay for equal work. The latter is so ingrained in our culture that this parable is understandably hard for most of us to take on first reading. But Jesus’ teaching is that God’s ways are even better than our ways, and we must stretch to imitate them.

CCM is compiling a list of people that are interested in helping out as Eucharistic Ministers. If a name should not be on this list for whatever reason, please contact CCM via Father Marty or ccm@bucknell.edu.
