Bishop, priest announce new pro-life priestly society
AMARILLO, Texas (CNS) -- Bishop John W. Yanta of Amarillo and Father Frank Pavone, national director of Priests for Life, have announced formation of a society of priests, deacons, brothers and seminarians to promote pro-life ministry. The society will "defend human life against the onslaught of abortion, euthanasia and genetic manipulation," said Father Pavone in a statement accompanying the announcement. The society is called the Missionaries of the Gospel of Life and is constituted under church law as a society of apostolic life. It will provide spiritual and educational services to the pro-life movement and encourage pro-life activity among the general clergy, said Father Pavone. The announcement was made March 23 in Amarillo, where the new society is based under the supervision of Bishop Yanta. The bishop has offered several diocesan buildings free of charge to house the new community's headquarters, said the announcement.
