Nicene Creed
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A special welcome to John Lattaza, a chef from Sacred Heart Parish, and his wife Betsy, who will be cooking the first Friday meal for CCM’s Lenten nights.

Ash Wednesday 2005—The Symbol of Ashes
Ever since the fifth century, many Christians have marked the beginning of these forty days with some use of ashes. In doing so they are in line with traditions that date back to early Biblical history. Very early Scriptures speak of having ashes on your body as a symbol of sorrow, regret, penitence and even shame. This kind of absolute self-abasement does not seem appropriate for anyone who seeks life fulfillment. Ashes speak not of life but death. If there is a fire in a neighborhood house, the place could be reduced to ashes, there might be nothing left. If Lent is to be a time for building a better life, a good life, don’t we need to have some sense of self-worth and dignity to build on? Ash Wednesday is a time for eliminating the things in our lives that deserve to die. Farmers may cut down old stocks or burn over fields before planting a new crop. We need a time to burn over and get rid of the things that make our life unproductive. These may be “sinful” habits we have picked up, or they may simply be unproductive. For example, being a “couch potato” may not be sinful, but it does not provide much of a good life. This day is not a time for completely “wiping the old slate clean.” There is much now in all of our lives that is good and worth keeping. Lent is an occasion for clearing out what holds us back. Only as we eliminate the unworthy can we find what is truly good. God wants us all to have a good life. Use the symbol of ashes to mark what is harmful. Then wipe them off, so your life can be clean and productive.

Lenten Schedule
Mass on Mondays - 8:00 AM
Mass on Tuesdays - 8:00 AM
Mass on Wednesdays - 8:00 AM
Mass on Thursdays - 5:30 PM
Mass on Fridays - 8:00 AM

Stations of the Cross will be held Friday evenings at 4:30 PM at Newman House.

LENTEN GUIDELINES
1. The traditional Lenten practices of piety, fasting, almsgiving and other forms of self-denial are still most warmly recommended by the church.
2. The faithful observance of Lent should manifest itself especially in the imitation of Christ in daily life and in the readiness to sacrifice time and talents whenever possible, in personal, parish, and community efforts for those in spiritual and material need. The spiritual hunger of the unchurched locally and in mission lands can be a focus of prayers and charitable giving.
3. ASH WEDNESDAY AND GOOD FRIDAY- are days of abstinence from meat for those 14 years of age and older. They are also days of fasting for those between 19 and 59. (Those bound by the law of fasting may take one full meal. Two smaller meals are also permitted, sufficient to maintain strength according to one's needs. Eating between meals is not permitted; but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work is seriously affected, the law does not oblige.)
4. ALL FRIDAYS in Lent are days of abstinence for those 14 years of age and older.
