Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God of true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and Son, He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A Note from Fr. Marty

In today's Gospel Peter couldn't have gotten it more right. When everyone else grumbles at the "hard sayings" of Jesus (about eating his flesh and drinking his blood), when other followers are returning to the superficial logic and familiar comfort of the old ways, Peter speaks on behalf of all those who are committed to Jesus, even without fully grasping the mystery of who he is. "Master," he asks, "to whom shall we go?" In that simple, heartfelt question all his false arrogance disappears. He understands from his core that even though he makes mistakes, misinterprets things and gets dazzled by his own agenda, his highest hopes and deepest yearnings will find their fulfillment only in Jesus. Our mission to proclaim his love in what we say and do can be enhanced through a fuller appreciation of our theological tradition. We can help others understand such "hard sayings" when we give ourselves to the discipline of study and learning. But in the end, all of us come to a threshold beyond which our intellect cannot go, a mystery which logic and science and history cannot penetrate. May all of us, when we approach that point, embrace the humble wisdom of Peter and say, "Master, to whom shall we go?"

CCM Fall 2006 Programming...Theology of the Body
A new discussion group is beginning at CCM! In 1979, Pope John Paul II provided a renewed vision of the human body and sexual relationship, entitled the “Theology of the Body.” Through this work, Pope John Paul invites an understanding of sexuality and relationship in light of the mystical union of Christ and His Church, to rediscover “the meaning of the whole of existence, the meaning of life,” and to participate in a lasting renewal of marriage, family, and personal dignity. Please join Catholic Campus Ministry every Tuesday at 12 noon for a series of discussions on the “Theology of the Body.” Feel free to bring a lunch. The first meeting will be Tuesday, September 19 at 12 noon in LC 241A.
