Palm Sunday 2006
As we near the end of Lent, we celebrate Passion (Palm) Sunday. At the beginning of the liturgy, we receive palms in memory of Christ’s triumphal entry into Jerusalem. As a symbol of triumph, the palms point us toward Christ’s resurrection and might remind us of the saints in heaven “wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands” (Rev 7:9). The white robes remind us of baptismal garments, and the palms suggest their triumph over sin and death through the waters of Baptism.

SPECIAL COLLECTION
For the next week, CCM will take a special collection after Mass for our sister parish, St. Paul’s. This parish is located in impoverished McKee, KY, and is greatly appreciative of the financial support offered by Bucknell, as they depend on donations to keep their programs running. The parish is small, and is run by a sister, as there is no resident priest assigned. The parish utilizes funds sent by CCM to help with the costs of running the parish, doing everything from helping parishioners to pay their water or electric bill, driving those with no car to appointments, keeping their office computer up to date, and supporting their large clothing bank. The financial support the parish offers to its parishioners is actually life sustaining. Without the money parishioners in need would be living in situations even worse than they currently are, which aren’t promising. People live on a day-to-day basis, working tirelessly to make ends meet. Therefore, your generosity to our collection for St. Paul’s will make a difference. Thank you.

A NOTE FROM FATHER MARTY
There are many responses we may have on hearing the solemn proclamation of the Lord’s Passion on Palm Sunday and Good Friday. One that offers us great hope for transformation is compassion. The word literally means “suffering with.” It is different from pity, which looks on the suffering of others from afar. Compassion involves a deep connection with the one who suffers, a recognition of our fundamental kinship. For followers of Jesus, the compassion arising from reflection on his suffering and death is a dangerous virtue. It breaks down the safe distance we often try to place between ourselves and the suffering of others. Compassion softens our hearts, not only to the pain Christ suffered on the torturous road to his execution, but also to the agony of Christ present in the suffering of his brothers and sisters living among us. Where do we find the suffering Christ today? We find him in the deaths of children fallen before the onslaught of abortion; in the humiliation of people who are taunted and mocked for the sake of a laugh; in the ravages of malnutrition and disease visited upon the world’s poorest people; in the oppression of those who confront economic and social injustice; in the devastating impact of addiction upon families and cultures. In these final days of Lent, may we listen more carefully to the ancient story of Christ’s suffering. May God grant us the gift of compassion and the courage to act on it.

LENTEN GUIDELINES

1. The traditional Lenten practices of piety, fasting, almsgiving and other forms of self-denial are still most warmly recommended by the church.
2. The faithful observance of Lent should manifest itself especially in the imitation of Christ in daily life and in the readiness to sacrifice time and talents whenever possible, in personal, parish, and community efforts for those in spiritual and material need. The spiritual hunger of the unchurched locally and in mission lands can be a focus of prayers an charitable giving.
3. ASH WEDNESDAY AND GOOD FRIDAY- are days of abstinence from meat for those 14 years of age and older. They are also days of fasting for those between 19 and 59. (Those bound by the law of fasting may take one full meal. Two smaller meals are also permitted, sufficient to maintain strength according to one’s needs. Eating between meals is not permitted; but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work is seriously affected, the law does not oblige.)
