A Prayer for Our Parents

Creator God,

You know what it is like to be both Mother and Father to us all. We ask You, the Source and Sustainer of all life, to bless our parents in the role you have set before them. Gift their lips with the wisdom to speak the truth so it can be heard. Gift their ears with sensitivity as they listen to the needs of their children. Gift their souls with a faith radiating Your intimate presence in their life. Gift their minds with patience and understanding to handle the changing needs and demands placed before them each day. Guide their hearts as they seek out and reconcile the areas of conflict and pain that may exist. And through all these things, may your abundant blessings continue to affirm and support all they do as parents. We ask this blessing upon each of them, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

AMEN.
We wish to thank all the CCM team members for all the wonderful events and programs accomplished this past semester. If you would like to become more involved with CCM please contact Fr. Marty or Suzanne over the summer at ccm@bucknell.edu.

Faith is best lived and proclaimed in community as you have demonstrated during your time here. As you leave, I pray that you will assume the role of community builders. Be folks who call forth the gifts of others, who reconcile differences, and who inject vitality and life into the communities you will join.

We live in a culture and society that focuses much on achievement and accomplishment. It infects everyone, it seems. I hope, however, that as you venture forth from this place you have a profound sense of yourself as a daughter or son of God—each of you precious in God’s sight and each of you called personally to live a life inspired by the gospel rather than simply conforming to the dictates of our time. I pray you will live a life, in short, that is good; a life in which your faith will not be sequestered into some private domain but will guide all your commitments and actions. Be aware that this may mean that you won’t be “in” with a certain crowd. But persevere in what you believe to be right and true.

My friends, our religion, our faith, does not take us out of life but energizes and gives meaning to everyday life. It links us in solidarity to a community that stretches back 2,000 years. Our Roman Catholic community has gone through history, ever changing and adapting, in one century never the same as before, its doors always open to the world. It has been sustained by men and women such as yourselves—the merciful, the single-hearted, the peacemakers. In all that time the hungry have been fed, the sick have been comforted, the strangers have been welcomed and prisoners visited. And, deep in their hearts, men and women have discovered what makes life truly worthwhile. Dear Graduates of the Bucknell Class of 2006, keep the faith! Keep the faith, and in so doing, live it and share it.

“You are educated. Your certification is in your degree. You may think of it as the ticket to the good life. Let me ask you to think of an alternative. Think of it as your ticket to change the world.”
